

Please complete this form if you are an individual account holder, sole trader or sole proprietor or completing this form on their behalf. Please don't use this form if you are not an individual. For joint or multiple account holders, use a separate form for each individual person. For entities, please complete the "Entity Self-Certification-CRS form."

The OECD Common Reporting Standards (CRS) requires CBI to collect and report certain information about each account holder's citizenship and residency status for international tax compliance purposes.

Depending on the countries or territories in which an account holder is tax resident, CBI may be required to disclose certain information regarding the account holder to the tax authority of the jurisdiction in which the account is held. Where the information is provided to the local tax authorities, the local tax authorities may exchange this information with the foreign tax authorities of the countries or territories in which the account holder is a tax resident.

*Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) is a unique combination of letters and/or numbers assigned to an individual or entity. Some countries do not issue a TIN, but may rely on other issued numbers such as social security/national insurance numbers or company registration numbers for entities. The OECD has published a list of the acceptable TIN and their alternatives.
